ABOUT ME

Howdy, y'all! I'm an innovative graphic designer with a lot of potential and curiosity to design new originals. I got into designing by creating logos for my youtube channels. But things got a bit serious and graphic designing is my passion now.

I'm a pretty fast learner, so I can pick new styles much faster than usual. A little story right here, I got to an intern at a startup, I could pick their style up just within one and half days to be precise. Below I mention things I do
